Other Resources:

Government of Canada

<http://www.canada.ca/en/services/business/index.html> This section of the Government of Canada website provides information for businesses on tax and tariff requirements, permits and regulations, intellectual property, as well as how to fund or incorporate a business, hire employees or sell to government.

BizPal (www.bizpal.ca <<http://www.bizpal.ca>> <<http://www.bizpal.ca>>) is an online source of information on permits and licenses. Launched in 2005, BizPal is jointly managed by a partnership involving governments at the federal, provincial, territorial and municipal levels. Provinces, territories and hundreds of municipalities have collaborated together to provide you with the permits and licenses that may be required to start and grow your business.

Business Link (www.businesslink.ca <<http://www.businesslink.ca>> <<http://www.businesslink.ca>>) is Alberta's business information service, a Government of Alberta and Government of Canada funded not-for-profit organization that helps entrepreneurs start and grow their businesses. You can visit their website, call or visit them to learn more.
